Become an expert in ballistic shield use

This intensive three-day course provides the instructor with all the techniques and drills required to train his own department's personnel in all facets of the use of a ballistic shield, from a slow building search to a dynamic officer rescue. Students will learn drills, shooting techniques and tactics for the ballistic-shield officer. This advanced course is a true instructor course. Upon completion, students will be required to make presentations on their knowledge, instructional skills, safety aspects and tactics.

Course Overview

Training is structured to provide classroom and hands-on-training. Mornings are devoted to classroom instruction, which is reinforced with practical range application in the afternoon. The first day covers fundamentals and individual skills; the second day addresses advanced skills such as officer-down rescues. The third day will be devoted to the students doing presentations in the classroom and on the range. A Tactical Shield Instructor's field manual will be provided for each student; students must provide their own ammunition. Students must pass a practical firearms qualification course and successfully complete a written examination. Students will be evaluated on their knowledge of the topic, instructional skills and safety considerations.

Topics to be covered:

- Ballistic Hand shields, Basic hand shield deployment,
- Fundamental clearing techniques
- Advanced team tactics, Stacking, Multiple shooters
- Officer-down rescue/victim recovery
